Ubuntu local communities

Ubuntu Local Communities, often shortened to LoCos, are regional teams that help advocate, promote, translate, develop, and otherwise improve Ubuntu. Find a Local Community in your region or start your own.

What are the perks of being in an Ubuntu Local Community?

- ✔ Network with other Ubuntu enthusiasts in your region
- ✔ Access to exclusive Ubuntu Merch Packs and swag
- ✔ Future event sponsorship opportunities
- ✔ Participation may lead to future Ubuntu Membership
- ✔ Help spread the mission of free and open source software around the world
